to being sentenced to six years' imprisonment, whether he pleaded guilty to all the charges made against him six largely within Russia. This plan, by the advocate general, Mohambas K. as far as is known, is based on the Gandhi, the non-co-operationist leader The advocate general pointed out tal to pay for the flood of necessary that the articles of Gandhi printed in merchandise, but must be helped to the compaign to spread disaffection directly to various industries without openly to systematically contact the compaign to spread disaffection directly to various industries without reorganise through foreign ald given the campaign to spread disaffection openly to systematically render government impossible and to bring about the overthrow of the government.

TAKES ALL BLAME:

Thereupon Gandhi made a long statement in which he admitted that teaching disaffection against the existing system of government had become almost a passion with him Hedeclared he took all the blame for the disorders in Madris, Bombay and Chaurtchaura; but he added that if he were liberated he would keep up his work. Non-violence was the first and last article of his faith, he bore no ill will against any administrator nor any disaffection towards the king's person.

Gandhi said he was in court to submit cheerfully to the highest penalty which could be inflicted, and that there were only two courses open to the fudge, either to resign if he felt the law he was called upon to administer was evil and Gandhi was innocent or to inflict the most severe penalty if he believed Gandhi's activity injurious to the public weal.

Announcement Is Made by Explorer Stefansson in Brooklyn

Brooklyn

NEW YORK, March 20.—Wrangel Island, one of the most important lands in the Arctic region, has been claimed for Great Britain by a party of three Americans, a Chandian and four Eskimos, in Brooklyn Sunday through Vilhajalmar Steffansson, Arctic explorer, organizer of the expedition. Mr. Stefansson said the British flag had been planted on the Island Sept. 21, last.

MISSION KEPT SECRET Steffansson, a British subject, said his fifth and latest Arctic expedition, made up of Allen Crawford, a son of a Toronto university professor; K. L. Knight, McMinville, Oregon; Frederick Mauer, New Philadelphia, Ohio, and Milton Galls of New Braunfels. Texas, with four Eskimos was seen by him into the northern wastes for the expection, and single seed of Jammica, lying 100 miles off the northeastern coase of Siberia and 400 miles west of Behring strait. Strategically, the Island dominates northeastern Siberia Mr. Refensson said only the leader of the party. Crawford, knew of the mosting board and lot. For him wastes for the expedition. The Americans he said became connected with the expedition purely through love of adventure.

Wrangel Island was first discovered in 1849, by a British naval expedition under Captain Kellett, who sailed close to the land, but did not go ashore, the explorer said. In 1869, DeLong, an American whaling captain, discovered the Island which it was assumed was the same sought by Baron Wrangel, a Russian, in 1825, In 1881 several American naval ships landed men on the Island. But all these landing parties, American and British alike, lost claim to the land after the lapse of fire years, according to the explorer.
